Zipcode is limiting destiny in New York City and in our Specialized High Schools. Only 14% of students at Bronx Science come from the Bronx. Only 3.4% of Brooklyn Tech students come from Central Brooklyn.

Stuyvesant High School just admitted almost a thousand students, but only ten of those students were African American and less than thirty were Latino. In a city that is majority African American and Latino.

So much talent is being locked out right now. Justice has been delayed, but it does not have to be denied. We can fix this. These schools will get better when they reflect all of New York City.

You've been talking the talk for years but have yet to really walk the walk. I'll be waiting.

They are taking in the best. Stop factoring race. Focus on merit and make a place for brilliant minds to thrive in a rigorous and challenging environment.
